Please submit a copy of your resale certificate or other applicable sales tax exemption certificate with your application. Applications received without the required certificate may be delayed or treated as taxable. We must have a valid tax exemption form on file under your legal name. If you have locations in multiple states, we may require a certificate for each applicable state. If you request a drop shipment to your customer and an exemption certificate is required for that transaction, the necessary documentation must be on file or sales tax may be charged.

All sales by Superior Bearing & Supply, Inc.® are expressly subject to the following terms and conditions. These terms are intended to be concise, commercially reasonable, and protective of Superior Bearing.

1. Orders and Credit Approval

All orders are subject to acceptance by Superior Bearing & Supply, Inc.® ("Superior Bearing"). Open-account terms are available only after credit approval. Until approval is granted, sales may be prepaid, credit card, ACH, wire, or C.O.D. Superior Bearing may reduce, suspend, or revoke credit at any time.

2. Pricing, Taxes, and Payment

Prices in effect on the date of shipment govern unless otherwise stated in writing. Quotations are subject to prior sale, availability, and correction of errors. Buyer is responsible for all sales, use, excise, and similar taxes unless valid exemption documentation is provided and accepted. Standard terms are Net 30 unless otherwise approved in writing. Past-due balances may accrue a service charge of 1.5% per month (18% annually), or the highest rate allowed by law, whichever is less.

3. Freight, Delivery, and Risk of Loss

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, all shipments are F.O.B. shipping point. Title and risk of loss pass to Buyer when goods are delivered to the carrier. Shipping dates are estimates only and are not guaranteed. Superior Bearing is not liable for delays caused by manufacturer shortages, transportation delays, weather, force majeure, labor issues, government action, or other causes beyond its reasonable control.

4. Inspection and Claims

Buyer must inspect shipments promptly. Any shortage, visible damage, or shipping error must be reported in writing within 5 business days of delivery. Concealed damage and carrier-related claims must be reported to the carrier promptly and in accordance with the carrier's rules. Failure to provide timely notice waives the claim to the extent permitted by law.

5. Returns, Cancellations, and Non-Stock Items

No return may be made without prior written authorization from Superior Bearing. Authorized returns may be subject to inspection, freight charges, and a restocking charge. Special-order, non-stock, custom, altered, treated, or cut-to-length items are non-cancelable and non-returnable unless otherwise agreed in writing. Orders may not be canceled after release to a supplier without Superior Bearing's written consent and payment of any resulting costs.

6. Product Use and Warranty Disclaimer
Products are sold with only the warranty, if any, provided by the original manufacturer. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Superior Bearing makes no other warranty, express or implied, including any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Buyer is solely responsible for application selection, installation, maintenance, and safe use of the products.

7. Limitation of Liability
To the fullest extent permitted by law, Superior Bearing's total liability arising from any sale or related claim shall not exceed the purchase price of the specific goods giving rise to the claim. Superior Bearing shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, punitive, or consequential damages, including lost profits, lost production, downtime, recall costs, labor charges, or damage to other property or equipment.

8. Default, Collection, and Security
If Buyer fails to pay when due, Superior Bearing may suspend performance, require advance payment, reclaim goods where permitted, and pursue all available remedies. Buyer agrees to pay all reasonable costs of collection, including attorneys' fees, court costs, and collection agency fees. Buyer grants Superior Bearing a purchase money security interest in goods sold on credit until paid in full and agrees to sign documents reasonably required to perfect that interest.

9. Governing Law and Venue
These terms and all sales transactions are governed by the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to conflict-of-law rules. Buyer consents to exclusive venue in the state courts located in Manatee County, Florida, or, where federal jurisdiction exists, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida.

10. General
These terms control over any inconsistent terms in a purchase order or other buyer document unless specifically accepted in writing by an authorized officer of Superior Bearing. No waiver is effective unless in writing. If any provision is unenforceable, the remaining provisions will remain in effect. Buyer may not assign its rights or delegate its obligations without Superior Bearing's written consent.

Buyer's submission of an order, acceptance of goods, or payment of an invoice confirms acceptance of these terms unless Superior Bearing agrees otherwise in writing.
